PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"Spread love everywhere you go. Let no one ever come to you without leaving happier". The profound words of Mother Teresa ring in my ears as we enter the holidays and say goodbye to a year filled with challenges. While the outside world has seen conflicts that could be disillusioning, your Board and many residents endeavor to build our spirit of community within the Woods. We've made great strides in this regard, with ground-breaking Social Events, new Membership Initiatives, and a stronger than ever spirit of inclusion that permeates the Call Newsletter as well as the first year of the CW Web Site.

Social: The September 19th Fall Wine Tasting event was a smashing success. Over 50 residents enjoyed the cultured spirits and tasty snacks in the lovely park-like splendor of Dick and Lynda Patton's beautiful home. Many thanks to our gracious hosts as well as to Social Chair Kary Radestock and her Committee. We were entertained and informed by guest speaker, Mike Opdahl, Managing Partner of Joshua Tree Imports, who so generously presented his fine wines. This was a relaxing evening that is sure to become a fixture event in the Woods going forward.

Advertising & Filming: Thank you to Loretta Hoffman and Dick Patton who continue to raise record-setting revenues in their respective areas.

Zoning: The Board now has a formal policy for assisting residents with inquiries and issues, thanks to the tireless efforts of Dimitri Chamieh.

Website: We are approaching 100 registrants to our CW secure site. The next developmental stage is rolling out. Look for these additions and improvements:

Log On: In an effort to alleviate confusion, we have rearranged the initial screen. Site visitors will now clearly see a "Log On" link which should be used for registered users. First time users will need to apply via the "Not Yet Registered" link; for those who need a reminder, use the "Forgot your password" link.

Newsletter Archives: Want to recall a Board report, resident announcement, or published recipe? All editions of the CW Newsletter since publication became computerized (since June 2002), now appear on the web site. This provides a chronological history of our neighborhood.

Photo Gallery: Reminiscing about the good times at a prior Social Event? Reliving the experience just got easier. Snapshots of prior festivities will also be chronicled, beginning with this past summer's terrific Fourth of July barbeque!

New Sections: A new Navigation Bar will extend horizontally across the top of the web site pages with drop down menus to highlight Community Interest Groups. These will include Women of the Woods (WOW) and Mothers of the Woods (MOMs).

In addition, new web pages will feature Art and Culture in the Woods. Our neighborhood is fortunate to house many talents in a variety of the arts: music, painting, photography, poetry, etc. This section will introduce some of our gifted neighbors and their talent in hopes of promoting appreciation for our neighborhood arts.

Similarly, Cooking in the Woods will explore secrets and recipes from among our finest local chefs. Consideration is also being given to featuring top recipes from our local restaurants (with their permission of course).

Wines and Spirits will explore some of the finer points in enjoying this popular pastime. Here, too, the Woods is blessed to contain a number of connoisseurs in this fine art.

In the Garden will feature interviews and tips from our best horticulture residents, as well as input from highly regarded outside experts.

Charitable Endeavors will highlight the efforts of the CWA Board, WOW, and local residents to improve the lot of the less fortunate and to inspire support amongst us.

Finally, "Looking for a Match" will give residents of common interest a chance to get together and share their passions, whether it be tennis, photography, parenting, quilting/sewing, or whatever.

Check our CW website frequently, www.chapmanwoods.net, for these updates as well as the current status of our efforts at Rosemead improvement.

On behalf of your CW Board, let me extend our very warmest wishes for a peaceful, healthy and happy holiday season.
